

K100 Weekly Update

March 20th-March 27th

Upcoming Dates:

Friday, March 22nd is Spring Picture Day! No need to send in $. Everyone will have their picture taken and the proofs will be sent home.

Wednesday, March 27th- Scholastic book orders are due!

Friday, March 29th is a Catholic Charities Dress Down Day-$1.00. Monthly reading logs are also due 😊.

What we are learning:

Math- Composing and decomposing numbers to 10. In the next few weeks we will begin addition and subtraction.

Reading/Science/Social Studies- We will be reading, writing, and learning about the Oceans and what ways the Atlantic Ocean is important. We will be reviewing letter /r/ and blending words with /i/.

Writing- We will be working on writing our opinions.

Religion-We continue to talk about lent. We will talk about making mistakes and God's forgiveness and that it is okay to not be and do everything perfectly. Ms. Scaffidi will be in on Monday to also touch on this subject.

Thank you for all of your support in everything! Thank you for the healthy snacks for the children each day!

Have a great week!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Provino ☺

“The more you read
the more things you know.
The more that you learn the more places you’ll go.”
-Dr. Seuss