

Miss Gennamore's Classroom News!

May 2019

Peek at the week

Social Studies 7: Currently, we are reviewing for the sectionalism unit test which will take place on Monday, May 20th. Students have been assigned a Webquest to help practice and develop digital literacy skills in addition to reviewing content.

Social Studies 8: The Cold War continues in 8th grade. This week we have focused in on the Vietnam war and will be wrapping up Nixon's presidency (minus the Watergate Scandal until we return from DC) and discussing the end of the Cold War.

ELA 8: In ELA and religion classes we have been taking some time to practice for our Class Day ceremony, in addition, we have also been working on letters that your child has been writing. More on this to come later!

Important dates:

May 16th: Track meet rescheduled

May 15th: Band Concert in the afternoon and evening

May 17th: Hope Ribbon and 8th grade Class Day

May 20-23rd: 8th Grade Washington D.C. Trip!
