

Update from Mrs. Daigler

March 20, 2019

-Reading/ELA: We will not introduce a new reading lesson this week, as we will read a variety of text this week and review the comprehension skills we've worked on this year. Likewise, we will use these passages to fine tune the skill of producing a quality written response to literature; Identify criteria of effective speakers, Declamation presentations will be Wed. 3/20, 21, and 22 in class.

-Spelling: Un 20 Test Fri., March 22

-Religion: Parts of the Mass, Blest Are We – Lent

-Math: Ch. 11: Measurement, Ch. 11 test Friday, March 22; At home, students should practice telling time to the nearest minute and continue to work on Multiplication/Division skills.

-Science: Create lapbook in school using Animal Report, begin presentations in class Mon 3/25.

Upcoming dates:

* Declamations will be presented in class beginning March 20

*Friday, March 22: Spring Picture Day

*March 23: Father/Daughter Dance

*Animal Report Presentations in Class: 3/25-3/29

*Thurs., March 28: Gr. 3 Field Trip to TOY (Students wear uniforms, bring a bag lunch)

*April 2-3: NYS ELA Test administered

-

Thank you for taking a moment to carefully read our website, weekly blurb, and teacher pages each Wednesday. Have a GREAT week!

Mrs. Daigler

