

K100 Weekly Update

January 2019

Dear K100 Families,

Happy New Year! I hope that everyone had a wonderful Christmas and that everyone has a very happy and healthy new year! Thank you all so much for the thoughtful and generous Christmas gifts! I hope everyone enjoyed our Kindergarten performance of Follow the Star!

Important Dates:

Tuesday, January 15th Kindergarten will be going on a field trip to St. Edmund's to see the school play Aladdin. We will be leaving at 8am and returning at 10am.

Monday, January 21st- NO SCHOOL Martin Luther King Jr. Day

What we are learning this month:

New sight words- they, be, or, had, by, word, but, not, all, and were.

Please keep practicing at home as well! The children are doing a great job learning their sight words. Please encourage them to keep up the great work!

Reading: Reviewing letter /p/ , /t/

-we will be reading and writing about why and how people use wheels. We will also be learning what we can create with different shapes. We will be finishing up our 2nd reading unit.

-we will be working on writing and identifying sentences that ask a question.

Grammar: Adjectives for size, shape and numbers

Math: Children will be learning to name, write, recognize, and count a quantity of numerals 6-10.

Religion: Gentleness, being Kind, Caring, and fair. The church year and God Our Creator

Science: How things move/penguins/animals that hibernate
