

St. Christopher Religious Education

WEEKLY UPDATE APRIL 7, 2019

We only have two more weeks of weekly classes and 2 Friday night sessions 4/5 and 4/12; before we come to the end of the class year. Last week of classes is Holy Week the week of 4/14.

This year all end of the year celebrations will be held in the classroom which will include lessons on Holy week and the gospel for Easter and closing of the year prayers.

Needed item- Mats for a Mission is in need of plastic grocery bags which they turn into mats for the homeless. Many of you have given us bags but they are in need of many more. Please clean out your bags and bring them in on Religious Education nights.

Catholic Charities is an organization that helps many people through-out the 8 counties of Western NY. The yearly appeal is upon us please bring your coins to add to our collection to benefit this fine organization. Check out the website www.ccnny.org for more information and a watch the video under media it is thought provoking.

Congratulations to all the 2nd graders who received the sacrament of Reconciliation for the first time on 4/3 and 3/20. You did a wonderful job and a special thanks to the teachers, helpers and parents.

Registration forms are being sent home the week of 4/7 they will go home with youngest or only student and will be available on our website.
